

2023 CAPWHN National Conference April 27-28, 2023

DAY ONE	THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 2023
Time	Session
07:30 – 8:30	Registration/Breakfast/Exhibits
08:30 - 09:00	Opening Ceremonies, Land Acknowledgment, and Welcoming Remarks
0900 - 1000	Opening Keynote: Returning to Spirit Speaker: Elder Mae Louise Campbell Objective: To discuss women’s health and women’s medicine from an indigenous perspective.
10:10-11:10	CONCURRENT SESSIONS A THEME: Strengthening Newborn Family Bonding Couplet Care: Bringing Postpartum and Neonatal Care Together Approaching Newborn Assessment and Infant Mental Health Through a Lens of Cultural Humility THEME: Emerging Concepts in Labour & Delivery Making Waves: Implementing Waterbirth at IWK Health Centre PROTECT The Preterm Outborn Education Collaborative

DAY ONE
THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 2023
Time	Session
10:10-11:10	CONCURRENT SESSIONS A (CONTINUED) THEME: Supporting Pregnancy Loss Through Virtual Resources Using Social Media to increase Awareness about Pregnancy and Infant Loss Improving Bereavement Care Through Education and Resources for Professionals: Innovations, Challenges, and the Power of the Family Experience
11:10-11:30	Health Break
1135-1235	CONCURRENT SESSIONS B THEME: Supporting Families Through Perinatal Loss Perinatal Hospice Program at Roger Neilson House – Honoring Precious Lives Parenting Through Loss: Helping Parents Support Their Children THEME: Leadership in Women’s Health How to Gain a Buy-In for Anything, From Anyone Practical Obstetric Multi-Professional Training: the UK Invasion THEME: Supporting Interdisciplinary Postpartum Care Perinatal Mental Illness in Canada: What do Health Care Providers Need? Postpartum Hemorrhage Management - Interdisciplinary Participation Required
12:35-13:20	Lunch / Exhibits

DAY ONE
THURSDAY APRIL 27, 2023
Time	Session
1320-1420	Afternoon Keynote: You're Right I'm Sorry: The Role of Humility in the Therapeutic Alliance Speaker: Dr. Heather Watson Objective: To cultivate actionable strategies to engage with patients who are escalated, anxious or actively refusing care to minimize unintentional retraumatization and create care-partnerships with a marginalized patient population.
1420-1450	Poster Presentations/Health Break
15:00 -16:00	CONCURRENT SESSION C THEME: Supporting Vulnerable Populations Through Infant Loss Experiences of 2SLGBTQIA+ Reproductive Loss: A Scoping Review Protocol Indigenous Outreach: Pregnancy and Infant Loss Support for Indigenous Families and Education for Health Professionals THEME: Labour & Delivery Nurses' Perceptions of their Influence on modes of Birth: An Interpretive Descriptive Study Fresh Eyes Approach to Fetal Health

DAY ONE		THURSDAY APRIL, 27, 2023
Time	Session
15:00 -16:00	CONCURRENT SESSION C (CONTINUED)
	THEME: Prenatal and Breastfeeding Support
	Breastfeeding in the Drive-through Province: Younger m(other)s, feeding their infants, and transition to the maternal role in Southwest New Brunswick
	Translating evidence to create antenatal practice tools that enhance the provision of prenatal care
	THEME: Supporting Fathers
	Fathers' First Lived Experience of their Female Partners' Postpartum Depression
	The Journey to Fatherhood Following an Experience of Infertility
16:10 – 16:50	Networking – Specialty Groups
17:00 19:00	Reception and Networking with Exhibitors & Posters

DAY TWO		FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023
Time	Session
07:00-07:45	Wellness event - Yoga Session
	2$ donation from participants: all moneys raised will go to Clan Mother's Healing Village
07:45-08:45	Registration/Breakfast/Exhibits
08:35- 08:45	Opening Remarks

DAY TWO		FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023
Time	Session
08:45-10:45	Morning Keynote workshop with nutritional break: Women's Health Clinic: Trauma Informed Care Speaker: Vycki Attallah Objective: To explore trauma from both a neurological and contemplative lens providing a general overview of the signs and impact of trauma. To identify the core principles of TIC and to explore ways to incorporate these into personal and professional interactions.
10:45-11:05	Health Break
11:10 – 12:10	CONCURRENT SESSIONS D THEME Supporting Breastfeeding for High Risk Newborns Effects of Alberta Family Integrated Care (FICare) on Breastfeeding at Age 2 Months Supporting the Use of Breastfeeding and Skin-to-Skin Contact for Pain Management in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit THEME: Culturally Safe Care in Obstetrics Etuptmumk – Bringing Two-Eyed Seeing to Maternal Child Nursing in BC First Nations Communities THEME: Gynecology Do patients with endometriosis receive respectful care? Experiences of care among patients with endometriosis in British Columbia Providing Safe Care in the Comfort of the home for patients following a gynecological surgery

DAY TWO
FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023
Time	Session
11:10 – 12:10	CONCURRENT SESSIONS D (CONTINUED)
	THEME: Prenatal Education Prenatal Education Through Social Distancing Expanding Patient Reach through Social Media and Virtual Mediums
12:10-12:55	Lunch / Exhibits
13:00 -14:00	Specialty Sessions
	Women's Health Escape room: How to use Simulation for Staff Education Breastfeeding Abortion Care (TBC) Fetal Health Surveillance
14:10 – 15:10	CONCURRENT SESSIONS E
	THEME: Supporting Families of High-Risk Newborns An Accelerated Journey to Home: Mothers' Experiences with Alberta Family Integrated Care (FI Care) Compared to Standard Care Effects of Alberta Family Integrated Care (FICare) on Short- and Longer-term Preterm Infant Development

DAY TWO
FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 2023
Time	Session
14:10 – 15:10	CONCURRENT SESSIONS E (CONTINUED) THEME: Early Pregnancy Loss: Experience in the EDs Early Pregnancy Loss (EPL) Process Improvements: The Ottawa Hospital Emergency Departments Not an Emergency: Discovering the Narratives of Emergency Department Nurses Who Care for Women Experiencing an Early Miscarriage THEME: Trauma TBA Trauma-Informed Care and Cultural Humility in Perinatal Nursing
15:10-15:30	Health Break
15:30 – 16:30	Closing Keynote: Navigating Moral Distress, Honouring Humility, and Fostering Career Longevity Speaker: Karen Burgess RPN, BScPN, BA
16:30 – 16:45	Closing Remarks

