

CAPWHN Award Sponsorship Opportunities

Celebrating excellence in perinatal and women's health nursing across Canada

Future of Perinatal and Women's Health Nursing Scholarship

(Two student recipients annually)

This award, co-sponsored by the Canadian Nursing Students' Association (CNSA), recognizes two outstanding students demonstrating leadership potential, academic excellence, and passion for advancing the health of women, newborns, and families. Sponsors will be directly associated with investing in the next generation of nursing excellence.

Rising Star in Perinatal and Women's Health Nursing Award

(One early-career nurse, less than 7 years)

Celebrates a new nurse showing remarkable promise, innovation, and impact in perinatal and women's health nursing. Sponsorship of this award links your organization with supporting the growth of Canada's emerging nursing leaders.

Excellence in Perinatal and Women's Health Nursing Leadership Award

(One experienced nurse leader, more than 7 years)

Honours a nurse leader who has made exceptional contributions to the profession at local, regional, or national levels. Sponsors will be recognized alongside excellence, innovation, and transformative leadership in Canadian nursing.

Sponsorship Benefits – $2,500 per award annually

- Recognition in award announcements, website, and CAPWHN social media.
- On-stage acknowledgement at the CAPWHN Annual Conference.
